Ant. How wonderful is this knowledge of yours that you have shown me, Lord.

O Lord, you search me and you know me, you know my resting and my rising, you discern my purpose from afar. You mark when I walk or lie down, all my ways lie open to you.

Before ever a word is on my tongue you know it, O Lord, through and through. Behind and before you besiege me, your hand ever laid upon me.

If I say: 'Let the darkness hide me and the light around me be night,' even darkness is not dark for you and the night is as clear as the day.
