A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the Temple of the God of Jacob that he may teach us his ways so that we may walk in his paths

Think and reflect...

How connected do you feel to your family and ancestors?

Do the paths you walk lead you into peace and love?

Have you ever had an encounter with God? Would you like to?

Temperance

Put others first.

Self-Control

Gentleness

Balance

Humility

Hope

“Treat others as you would like to be treated”

Allow a time of silence to reflect on these questions.

Intercessions

Prince of Peace, turn our jealousies into love, teach us to forgive rather than give way to anger.

Lord hear us, Lord graciously hear us.

When you come to judge the world, may we stand before you without fear.

Lord hear us, Lord graciously hear us.

You stand in our midst unknown: help us to respond to your invitation to know you and walk in your ways

Lord hear us, Lord graciously hear us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Amen

Concluding prayer

Prepare our hearts, Lord, by the power of your grace. When Christ comes, may he find us worthy to receive from his hand the bread of heaven at the feast of eternal life.

Amen.

Ant. Mary was greatly troubled at this greeting and wondered what it might mean.

Remember how you gave your word to your servant,

Saviour of the world, by your redemptive power you preserved your mother Mary from every stain of sin; deliver us from the evil that lies hidden in our hearts.

Christ, our Redeemer, you made the Virgin Mary the sanctuary of your presence and the temple of the Spirit; make us bearers of your Spirit, in mind, heart and body.

Lord hear us, Lord graciously hear us.

King of kings, you assumed Mary into heaven to be with you completely in body and soul; may we seek the things that are above and keep our lives fixed on you.
